

Media Invitation: 7th European Quality Assurance Forum, Tallinn, 22-24 November 2012

The European University Association (EUA) is pleased to invite you to the seventh European Quality Assurance Forum (EQAF) that will take place at Tallinn University, Tallinn, Estonia, from 22 to 24 November 2012. Every year, the EQAF brings together high-level speakers on Quality Assurance (QA) in higher education and professionals from the HE sector to discuss the latest trends in QA.

The 2012 EQAF, entitled 'How does quality assurance make a difference?', will explore the impact of external and internal QA on higher education policies and institutional realities.

The Forum is co-organised by EUA, the European Association for Quality Assurance in Higher Education (ENQA), the European Students' Union (ESU) and the European Association of Institutions in Higher Education (EURASHE) and aims to create a unique platform for the higher education and QA communities to monitor, shape and anticipate developments in the area.
